WHY
The Place to get your BEDS Cleansed
IS OVER KIRKPATRICK'S STORE, ON MAIN STREET.

WHERE they sift all the dirt and scale all the feathers, and return them with the ticks without waste, or else turning them up: where they warrant to make the feathers as fine and good as new. All you have to do is to test our work for yourselves, and be satisfied.

Remember the place, and do not go elsewhere with other cheap pretenses.
Beds taken from, and delivered with our team, without extra charge in the city.
Price per bed, blotter and bolsters, $2.00.

THE NOVELTY
IS THE ONLY WRINGER THAT HAS THE
Patent Flange Cog-Wheels
ON BOTH ENDS OF THE ROLLS,
The cogs on one of which are [illegible] relatively between those on the other, thereby preventing the [illegible] and consequently the [illegible] of the rolls, which is the [illegible] and usually found in all [illegible] Wringers.
EQUILIBRIATE
and thereby nearly [illegible] pressure. (The importance of [illegible] is not generally understood.)
Notwithstanding the rolls can separate freely at either end, the Cog-wheels cannot be thrown out of gear, on both ends of the Wringer at the same time, unless the pressure is taken off.
The NOVELTY is fastened to a tub or box by a Patent Curved Clamp, which has an equal bearing on a tub the whole length of the Wringer. Other Wringers are merely fastened to a stave at each end, and are thus liable to wrench the staves from their proper positions and ruin the tub.
The Cog-wheels, Thumb-screws, &c., are nicely galvanized.
Buy the "NOVELTY," or at least give it on trial with any or all others, and keep the Best. Sold everywhere.

Penobscot Log Driving Co.

THE following is a copy of Act additional to the charter of said Company, passed by the last Legislature, viz:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in these present assembled, as follows:

Section 1. That on all the ascending forty feet in length driven by said corporation, or their agents, a toll shall be assessed for driving, not exceeding one cent per piece, at the discretion of the directors, and the said corporation shall be entitled to receive the same.

Section 2. And said company may make contracts for driving logs outside of the limits of the company on the Penobscot waters; and for any sum due for such driving, the same shall be collected and be enforced in the same manner as is provided in other cases.

Section 3. Said company may build or assist in building and keep in repair, any steamboats or other crafts which, in their opinion, or in the opinion of the directors, may be advantageous in facilitating the purposes of the drive, the expense of which shall be apportioned upon the logs of different years, as they may think proper.

Section 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 11, 1869.

Finance Question.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.

The Times states that last evening a strong and powerful delegation of merchants and importers of this city left for Washington, for the purpose of holding a conference with the President relative to the disturbed condition of financial affairs, previous to the holding of the Cabinet meeting.

The subject before the Cabinet will be the financial situation of the country as it has been affected by the recent crisis, and the merchants and importers have decided to seek the President's aid in the emergency, so that they may be relieved from the embarrassments naturally resulting from the unrestricted condition of the money market.

On Wednesday, the Assistant Secretary was requested to ask Secretary Boutwell if he would not modify this policy, so far as the selling of ten millions of gold during next month was concerned.

Mr. Boutwell sent positive instructions that the line of action already determined on by the Secretary would not in any way be disturbed.

The merchants and importers thereupon determined to send an influential delegation to consult with the President and request him to allow the Secretary discretionary power, so that he may sell the gold in such quantities, and at such times, as will best regulate the market.

Cuban Affairs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.

A Steamship Eutepe, was seized yesterday by the United States Marshal on suspicion of having guns and ammunition on board destined for the Spanish gunboats now being finished at this port.

It is stated that the privateer Hornet is still cruising off the east end of Long Island, and daily receiving additional supplies of arms and ammunition from vessels sent here by the Cuban Junta.

New York Money Market

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.

The Telegram says the stock market opened this morning with a firm and buoyant feeling and considerable activity, prices rapidly advancing from the last figures an average of between 2 and 3 per cent.

The feeling in the street is confident and joyous.

The Gold Room has resumed its usual aspect, except that the dealings are much less and the centre ring at times wears a deserted appearance.

The price opened at 130 and advanced to 130½, from which it fell off again to 130¼. This last market, exhibits indications of a free supply of cash, gold and an easier feeling in currency.

Seven per cent. was paid for carrying, but exceptional transactions are recorded at 1-32 for carrying and flat for borrowing.

Government Gold Sales.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.

The bids for a million of government gold to-day reached two and a half millions, ranging from 127½ to 130 17-100. It is stated that Commander Vanderbilt has borrowed $10,000,000 of Boering Bros., giving ten millions of Hudson Railway shares as our collateral.

All the financial articles report everything easier on Wall street and confidence restored.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR.

FRIDAY, OCT. 1, 1869.

The Surplus Revenue.

It is undeniable that the present administration has commenced so rigorously to retrench in expenditures and to collect the revenues faithfully that a large surplus must be the result. Indeed, already we are gaining ground so rapidly that the question is an important one, what shall we do with the surplus revenue?

The official statement of the receipts and expenditure of the national government for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1869, is as follows:

RECEIPTS.
Customs	$170,098,428
Internal taxes	150,122,239
Lands	4,020,285
Miscellaneous	27,762,785
Total	$370,893,745

EXPENDITURES.
Civil service	$56,324,061
Pensions and Indians	35,610,640
War	78,502,483
Naval	31,690,709
Interest	130,004,292
Total	$321,041,044
Surplus revenue	49,852,701

Under the circumstances, this is a very encouraging exhibit. A surplus of fifty millions for the year, only one third of which has been passed under the administration of an honest President and Cabinet, indicates that with no leaks like those which existed under Johnson, we may hope for much greater results in future.

We must bear in mind, in considering this statement that last year, notorious frauds were committed in the collections of the revenue in certain branches, and that the inefficiency of the service was most glaring. The leaks were so large that there was no hope of even meeting the current expenses of the government, not to say anything about the reduction of the national debt. Almost the entire surplus for that whole year accrued during the four months of Grant's administration up to the date of the above statement. The embarrassments of a change in all the departments, added to the natural diminution of the revenues at that time, must also be allowed in favor of the administration.

Again, during the last year of the Johnson-Democratic reign, the expenses were far larger that they should or will be again. The extra bounties are all, or nearly all, paid. The pension list grows smaller, and no longer accumulates arrears. The civil list has been somewhat retrenched; and reductions can still be made in the army and navy appropriations. The public debt diminishes, so that the interest will be less every year.

Again, we must take into account that from this time forth, under the influence of a better government, and as the natural result of a return to solid, peace and reconstruction of the Union, the business of the country must rapidly increase, and the revenues must advance in proportion. We shall find that the whole country will be able to add largely to its resources within a very short time, and that our credit will grow as well.

Thus on all hands, our financial exhibit is most encouraging, and it is evident that the receipts of the Treasury for the current fiscal year, if the present tax laws were maintained, must be more than $310,000,000. No doubt there will be a surplus of $126,000,000, according to the estimates which the Secretary of the Treasury will present to Congress in December. Certainly no easy figuring can reduce this to $100,000,000.

The question is, therefore, a very proper one, what shall be done with the surplus that is to result from this state of affairs? Congress will be called upon to consider this among the earliest and most important subjects at the next session, and it will require great care to properly adjust the financial laws to give us the greatest advantage. It is evident that our credit must be guarded and that to some certain extent the national debt must be reduced. This can easily be done, still leaving a large surplus. Suppose we reduce the debt at the rate of fifty millions annually, (and we can do even better, than that without embarrassment)—there must then be left a large amount to dispose of in some other way. Cannot this be applied in reduction of some branches of our taxes to the greatest advantage? It must be admitted that our tariff, though perhaps necessary in a time of pressing need, can be so amended to our time of prosperity as to relieve the people to a great extent of the burdens of which they complain. We believe that, in connection with our steady reduction of the debt so far as safety will allow, will more than over all the general prosperity and credit of the nation, and in one of the great points to be considered henceforth.

General N. B. Forrest has written a sharp letter, denouncing a fire-eating Southern editor who spoke of his associating with persons with whom he does not agree politically as disgraceful and disgusting. He says he is engaged in building a railroad which will be of vast advantage to Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee, and that in his opinion the accomplishment of this enterprise is an object worthy the ambition of any man, and no one who loves his country and humbly seeks to serve the interests of his fellow-citizens, is far above the considerations of mere partizan politics. He adds that his object has been to bring peace to the country and prosperity to the people; to soften down the prejudices of men of both parties, and the development of the great material interests of the country, to smooth the asperities engendered by the war, and efface all the marks and the memories of strife. If reconstruction has reached Forrest's heart since the Tammany Convention last year, we may well take courage.

The New York World declares that so far as can be seen now, Asa Packer will be chosen Governor of Pennsylvania, and George H. Pendleton Governor of Ohio. This is the modest way in which the Democrat now takes to express its predictions. If this is all it ventures, no one can hereafter turn to the Democrat and say, "you claimed victory in Ohio and Pennsylvania." It has done no such thing. It knows better, and has no farther confidence in prophecy.

Many of the Western Railroads are inaugurating the plan of issuing numbered tickets to railroad passengers, so that every one can have a reserved seat, as at public entertainments. Why should not this be universal? It would certainly save much crowding and jostling, and much discomfort and inconvenience would be avoided. There may be some objections to it on the part of railroad officials, but we believe its advantages to the traveling public would finally convince them that it is for the interest of all concerned.

A despatch from Suez announces that the barriers obstructing passage waters of the Bitter Lakes have been removed, and M. Lesseps has passed through the canal in the steamer from Port Said to Suez, in 13 hours.

The public debt statement shows a decrease of debt during the past month of $7,467,420.

TEXAS POLITICS. A Boston Journal dispatch from Washington says that the Texas Democrats have at last shown their hands. Now that they have ascertained that the Administration will not support Hamilton they have abandoned him. Mr. John W. Ohl, who represents the Davis Republican in Washington, received the following telegram Thursday afternoon from J. B. Throckmorton, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee. The telegram is dated at Houston, Sept. 30, and says:

"Since Hamilton's overthrow by the Administration the Democrats have held a convention at Brenham and organized on the basis of opposition to the 14th amendment, and nominated a straight out ticket, with H. Stewart for Governor."

This information only serves to prove the truth of what the Texas Republicans have said all along, and of what Gen. Reynolds said in his recent letter to the President that the Democrats were only supporting Hamilton because they hoped to use him and pretended a loyalty they never felt in order to secure the Administration in their support. Finding that the President and Cabinet have no confidence in Hamilton the Democrats also desert him and now fall under their true colors.

A Labor Reform Convention was held in Worcester, Mass., Tuesday and made nominations for State officers. Its candidates are unknown to fame. At the opening of the Convention after Mr. S. P. Cummings had delivered his usual speech Roy. Peter Stratton of Worcester was called on to offer prayer but on coming forward he objected to praying in behalf of the Convention. It was part of its platform to pay off the National debt with greenbacks. He did not believe in that policy which had been alluded to by Mr. Cummings in his opening remarks. Some explanation here ensued on the part of Mr. Cummings and gentlemen on the floor, when the Reverend gentleman, without further objections, proceeded to ask the blessing of God upon their deliberations. The platform with singular inconsistency favors the reduction of the hours of labor to eight in case of men and ten for women and children. It also goes for practical reconstruction.

INDIAN AFFAIRS ON THE PLAINS. General Campbell, of Wyoming Territory, who was also ex-officio Commissioner of Indian Affairs, under date of September 23d, sent a report to Commissioner Parker of several engagements with Sioux Indians in Wind River Valley. In one of these, Company D, Second Cavalry, had a fight with one hundred and fifty Indians and defeated them. One soldier was killed and four wounded. Five Indians were killed. The band was pursued and in full war dress. On the arrival of portions of the same tribe, James L. Camp, a Mr. Skinner and Mr. Green, an ex-soldier man, name unknown, all citizens, were killed, and one citizen, A. W. Williams badly, though not fatally, wounded. Three other skirmishes were reported, but the above includes all the casualties.

Gen. Babcock, of Gen. Grant's staff, is traveling in St Domingo, and, as they say, is discovering for the long coveted bay of Samana for a naval station. Perhaps this is what he is doing; but we fancy (says the N. Y. Sun) that he has been sent to look after the whole Dominican Republic with a view to informing Gen. Grant whether it will be worth while to annex it. For such a duty Babcock is an excellent man, shrewd, sensible, and with his eyes always open.

THE NEW YORK STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, which met at Syracuse on Wednesday, was a very full and harmonious assemblage, and they inaugurated the campaign auspiciously. It was permanently organized by the election of Hon. John A. Griswold as president.

Judge Terrepont, from the committee on resolutions, reported a long list, among which we find these:

Resolved, That the public debt, both principal and interest, shall be paid in coin as the same matures, and that repudiation of any part thereof, either directly or indirectly, or by any device or subterfuge would bring dishonor upon the nation and demoralization and disaster upon the people.

Resolved, That taxation ought to be equal and simple, and rendered as little burdensome to citizens as the nature of the case will possibly allow.

Resolved, That the Government is bound by the most sacred obligations to protect its citizens, whether of native or foreign birth, wherever they may go.

Resolved, that every American citizen, whether naturalized or native, should have equal right to suffrage without regard to nation, race or religion.

The convention proceeded to nominate candidates:

Mr Geo Wm Curtis was unanimously nominated for Secretary. (A dispatch informs us that Mr Curtis declines the nomination.)

Mr Thomas Hillhouse, of Ontario, was unanimously nominated for Comptroller.

Gen Franz Sigel was nominated for Engineer and Surveyor, when Mr La Baugh announced that he had a telegram from General Sigel, stating that he could not, on account of ill health, accept any nomination.

Gen John C Robinson of Rome, was then unanimously nominated for the office.

Mr Thomas Smith was nominated unanimously as Treasurer.

Mr Martin I. Townsend of Rensselaer, was unanimously nominated for Attorney General, amid a round of cheers. Several candidates for State Prison Inspectors were proposed and their claims earnestly advocated. Finally, Mr Daniel D Conover of New York, was nominated in a ballot and his nomination made unanimous.

Delafield Smith moved that Judge Woodruff and Manson be re-nominated by acclamation for the long and short terms of the Court of Appeals, which was carried.

IMPORTATION FRAUDS. A large delegation from the manufacturers of steel in New York and Pittsburg and other points had an interview with Secretary Boutwell, to urge him to consider the report of W. B. Fatwell, in agent of the Treasury now abroad, in regard to the practice of importers of steel, by which, as the committee charges, the invoices regularly show an undervaluation of the articles imported amounting from one and a half to two cents per pound. The Secretary promised that the matter should receive prompt attention and that stringent measures should be taken to remedy the irregularity wherever it existed. The committee afterwards called on the President and stated their case. He made answer, that the administration was determined to stop all frauds so far as possible, and would surely look into the case they presented.

The Lewiston Journal offers some cogent reasons why young men should stay in Maine rather than go West. A Mr. J. P. Johnson of Lewiston has recently returned from several months' visit to the West. He returns with the settled conviction that no Maine man ought to hurry from his own State, especially to leave a comfortable home and a safe business, to plunge into the uncertainties of mercantile business or farming in the West. He knows of many mechanics who have moved West with their families, who had hard times to get a living and who would gladly return home if they had funds so to do. In Illinois and other farming States where there is a good market land it is so high—$100 an acre on the average—that it is impossible for a poor man to secure a good farm. To do farming on any profitable scale a man must be worth $10,000—and with such a property no better off or happier—other things equal—than the Maine men in their hurry to get twice before exchanging the grain and hay fields and the fine grass and stock-raising interests of Maine for the expensive farming lands of [illegible]

Political and Personal

A meeting of the anti-Tammany elements in the Democratic party, with Republicans in New York city, against the ring, is anticipated.

The Matteawan (N. Y.) Courier, which has been urged for the nomination of a straight-out Democratic State ticket, has been hearty in its efforts to support the nominee of the National Union Republican party. Nearly all the Democrats are hard working for Judge Dent.

The excitement over the struggle for Senator in Virginia increases every day, and it is estimated that possibly a Radical Republican may be chosen to fill one of the [illegible] Alexander Sharp, late Postmaster at Richmond, and brother-in-law of the President, has been brought prominently forward by the Conservatives.

He became a navigator on the canal."

The town of Newton did not give a vote for Hickborn and elected Hon. Lewis Barker to the legislature by the largest majority ever received in that town, he running 80 votes ahead of his ticket.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

Hon Beverly B Boits has been appointed Collector of the Internal Revenue for the Sixth District of, Virginia, vice Sam'l H Stealing, suspended.

There is reason to believe that our Government has adopted all necessary measures for capturing or obtaining possession of the Steamer Telegraph now, or recently engaged in committing depredation on American Commerce.

The Committee of 15, heretofore appointed to prepare the outlines of a plan for an International Industrial Exposition, held a meeting tonight. A resolution was adopted declaring it practical in 1871, and that all proper measures should be taken to make it successful. A Committee of three was designated to prepare a charter to be presented to Congress for enactment. A National Executive Committee was appointed consisting of the President of the United States, Chief Justice Chase, the heads of Departments, Governors of the several States and Territories and the Mayors of the principal cities, also a local Executive committee of ten for the District of Columbia, to which are to be added the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioners of Patents and Agriculture.

CABLE NEWS.

PARIS, Oct. 1. A Council of Ministers will be held tomorrow, at which it is expected a decision in regard to the convocation of the Chambers will be arrived at.

The report that the body of the father of the murdered family had been found has proved false.

MADRID, Oct. 1. A commission of fifteen deputies to the Cortes has been charged with the duty of reporting on the various candidates for the throne of Spain.

The report from Madrid represent that the Republican movement in Catalonia and Andalusia promises to deceive the hopes of its instigators.

Meeting of Maine Shipbuilders.

BATH, Oct. 1.

At a meeting of the Maine shipbuilders and Ship Owners Association, held in this city today, the following named gentlemen were chosen to represent this body at the session of the Congressional Committee on Commerce and Shipping, to take place in New York on the 12th inst, and invite that Committee to the representation of its labors to visit this State—Hon. G. Reid Boro, President of the Association of Stockton; Hon. N. A. Farwell of Rockland, Hon. J P. Morse and John Maydon, Esqr. of Bath; and Capt. C M Davis of Portland.

Railroad Matters.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 1.

The arrangements for the Railroad Convention to be held at Oswego on the sixth of October next, of which official notice is now issued, have been perfected, and arrangements have been made for the transportation of delegates at half fare. A number of public officials, including Governors of States, Congressmen, Railroad officials, members of the Board of Trade, and parties interested in ocean steamers have already signified their purpose to attend, Representatives from various cities and towns on the route are also expected.

Terrible Accident.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 2.

A terrible accident occurred at the State Fair this afternoon. The steam boiler of Tinker & Co.'s of this city, exploded a few minutes before 4 o'clock. There was an immense crowd on the ground at the time, and it was difficult to get the particulars. It is known that 12 persons were instantly killed and the number wounded will probably reach a hundred.

Fatal Accident

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.

Yesterday, while a party of men were engaged in work on a bridge at the village of Rolling heavy timber across a temporary trestle, it gave way and ten of their number were wounded, several of them seriously. About one hundred feet of the roof fell on the upper rapids on the Mississippi river at Moline, broke away yesterday, entailing a loss of about $150,000 and delaying the work. The work on the Rock Island and Rapids has been suspended and the coffer dams flooded. Some 300 men have been thrown out of employment.

Collision

ALBANY, Oct. 1.

A freight train on the Susquehanna railroad going behind time, this morning ran into a passenger train, and the train collided near Island Bridge, seriously damaging both engines but injuring no person.

International Industrial Exhibition

BUFFALO, Oct. 1.

Preparations for the International Industrial Exhibition in the city are rapidly progressing, and entries of all kinds are pouring in from all quarters, and everything indicates a success.

Additional buildings are to be erected to accommodate the exhibitors.

Sailors Adrift

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.

The Evening Bulletin of today prints a statement of a sailor set ashore from the barque on Long Island by officers of that ship.

He gives exact details of her armament and proceedings since leaving Halifax. The narrator was one of ten men sent on shore for insubordination.

From Havana

HAVANA, Oct. 1.

The barometer today predicts bad weather, and the Captain of the port has given orders to the masters of vessels in the harbor to make their vessels fast to prevent their dragging anchors should a hurricane occur.

Committal.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.

James Kelley, charged with shooting Joseph Cox on steamer Bristol Wednesday night was brought before Commissioner Hallett today and committed for trial in default of $5,000 bail.

—Mr. Andrews commences his classes in dancing this evening.

THE TROTS. The trotting Park had a good attendance today to witness the finishing up of the trots begun yesterday. The horses in each trot were too closely matched as to make the trot intensely interesting. This morning the odds were in favor of Nellie, the pools selling at 10 to 7. Lady Chapman and Rald having been drawn, the contest was between Topsey, Nellie and Right Bower, the two first named having won two heats each and the latter none. The race was quickly decided, Topsy winning the heat and race in 2:31½. Considerable money changed hands on the announcement of the result.

Carlotta won the 2:40 purse, making the heat and race in 2:41.

A match was made up between Rose Bonbour and Grey Target, the former winning in three straight heats: Best time 2:44.

A running match was won by Little Tom, who ran against two competitors, winning in three straight heats in 2.07, 2.01 and 2.09.

These trots closed up the trotting meeting which has been one of the most interesting and exciting ever held here.

FATAL ACCIDENT. A deaf and dumb man named Timothy Flanegan was killed almost instantly yesterday, by being run over by the cars of the E & N A Railroad on Front street. He was walking on the track when the cars, backing slowly down from the bridge, struck him, and running over him cut off an arm and cut him nearly in two diagonally across the abdomen. He lived but a short time after the accident, but was conscious and shook hands with his friends. He was employed at the Muzzy Iron Works and was at work yesterday, but had left the shop only about fifteen minutes before the sad occurrence. He was about 45 years old and unmarried.

We find the following in the last Maine Farmer:

STOCK FROM THE FAIR. Hastings Strickland, Esq., of Bangor, who has recently purchased one of the best farms in Piscataquis county, and who exhibited some fine horses at the New England Fair, made quite extensive purchases of stock and articles, to place upon his newly purchased farm. Mr Strickland bought of S D Bruce, Esq. of the New York Turf, Field and Farm, a pair of splendid Kentucky mules, aged respectively three and four years and weighing 2,000 pounds. The price paid was $900. In addition he also purchased a thoroughbred Jersey bull, a thoroughbred Short Horn bull, and a thoroughbred Hereford bull for the purpose of improving the neat stock of Piscataquis county. He also purchased a elder mill, a stump extractor, a hay cutter and a churn. Exhibitors at fairs often have always runs across such a customer as Major Strickland.

Surveyor's Office, Oct. 1, 1869.

—The good order and softness upon centennial day was the subject of much remark. Only one arrest, and that for a trivial offence, was made by the police during the day.

—The Second Annual Fair of the Narragansett Park Association takes place at Cranston, R. I. October 5, 6, 7, 8. The premiums offered amount to $14,500. Notice among the horses from Maine entered for the several purses of from one to five thousand dollars, are the following: E H Russel of Skowhegan, name Nellie; S S Lyford, Lewiston, name Revenue; Henry Taylor, Portland, name Jabob; same name Snow Ball; S H Gilbreth, Kendall's Mills, name Gilbreth, Knox; O M Shaw, Bangor, name Penobscot Chief.

—A Canton correspondent informs the Lewiston Journal that Mr. St Lucas captured a magnificent eagle the other day, measuring some seven feet from tip to tip. Mr Lucas fired at him with a rifle and the ball cut the feathers from the tip of one of his wings, thus disabling him from flying, and the royal bird was taken unharmed.

—The Pioneer says that the colt which Nelson Herrin of Houlton sold to a man in New York, some months since, but who died before the horse could be delivered in Bangor, has lately been purchased by a brother of the deceased for $2000.

—The Lewiston Journal hears there has been quite an excitement at Bridgton, caused by alleged grave robbing. It is stated that a newly made grave was robbed a day or two after burial of the body, and it was hinted that it might be for purposes of dissection.

—The reduction of trains on the C. T. Railroad renders it quite lonesome on the line. Instead of fourteen trains a day at Bethel, the number is reduced to seven, says the Lewiston Journal.

—A regatta is soon to be held at Brunswick. The Gnss have entered to the disputed race. The college students will indulge in running and walking races.

—The Bolfast Age says: "Our potato dealers complain bitterly of the disease among the potatoes, which shows itself after they are brought in, and have paid in bulk a few days. From all we can learn, we should judge the rot is more general and will cause greater loss to the crop than for many years.

—By the act of the last Legislature, consolidating for the purpose of harmony in action the Board of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, it is made the duty of the Governor to appoint five members at large to act with the boards in their deliberation. The following gentlemen have been appointed:

M C Fernald of Orono

— Pitchom of Orono

Charles E Hamlen of Waterville.

Orrus F Brackett of Brunswick.

George L Goodale of Brunswick

BATES COLLEGE. We have received the catalogue of this flourishing institution for the academic year 1869-70. There are at present connected with the college 15 Seniors, 10 Juniors, 16 Sophomores and thirty-six Freshmen.

—James Thompson of Eastport, has been appointed Sheriff of Washington County, in place of Benj. W. Farrar, resigned.

—Madison K Mayberry of Limerick, has been appointed Supervisor of Schools in York County, in place of Moses J. Haines of Biddeford, resigned.

—Mr. Brackett, the member of the Board of Agriculture from Waldo County, offers several splendid books as prizes for the boys under fourteen years of age, who exhibit the best trained steers at the Annual Cattle Show, at Belfast. These are in addition to the society's premiums. The same offer is also made to the boys in the North Waldo Society. The books will be awarded by the regular committee, and no boy who shows a well trained pair shall go home without a prize.

—The Belfast Age learns that Charles Bray, of Boston, formerly of Belfast, was very badly burned a few days since, by the ignition of a parrot of gun-cotton, caused by wood from his pipe.

—Mr C. Whitaker of Sharmont, planted but three sprouts of the Early Rose potato last spring, from which he has harvested seven pounds. One specimen weighed over a pound, says the Belfast Age.

THE BANNER. Town is Porter in Oxford County, which made a Republican gain over last year, of fifty-five, and has a clean ticket by Governor.

—The Piscataquis Observer says the recent heavy rainstorm in that vicinity has caused the river to rise several feet—and a jam of logs, which have been lying between the two dams since last spring, commenced moving on Monday afternoon last. Fears were entertained at one time for the safety of the railroad bridge now in construction near Milo, but we have learned that they passed that point without doing any damage the workmen having aided the drivers in protecting the bridge from destruction by the logs.

—The chaplain of the U. S. Military Asylum at Chelsea, Mr. Mr H F Wood, has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has been very successful in collecting books for the asylum library. People not only seem willing but anxious to do something to promote the comfort and happiness of our brave boys who have sacrificed everything but life itself in defending our common country. As one of the results of the chaplain's recent trip, he has obtained at least 1500 volumes of new and valuable books, a large number of beautiful engravings and school apparatus, including maps, charts, globes, &c.

—The Lewiston Journal is informed that the millinery establishment of Miss Nellie Woodbury in Wilton, was entered Tuesday night through a window, by some graceless scoundrels who took nearly all the ribbons, cloakings, kid gloves, &c., to the value of about $300—clearing out the show case. No clue has been obtained to the rogue. The event created quite a sensation in that vicinity, it being the first operation of that kind in Wilton. The loss fell quite heavily upon Miss Woodbury.

—The Machias Union says a fire broke out in the depot of the Railroad Company at Whitneyville on the afternoon of last Friday week. In an hour the depot, machine shop, woodsheds, office, &c., of the company were destroyed. The fire caught by sparks from the engine. Loss $10,000 to $15,000. No insurance. The wind was southwest, an easterly wind would have swept all the mills on the dam.

—A correspondent of the Lewiston Journal writes that a veteran teacher, Miss Martha Jellison of Ellsworth, has been an active teacher for fifty-five years. She has had for her pupils nearly all the public men of the city. She is still engaged in teaching. She is now 72 years old.

—We find in the Portland Press that in the case of State vs. Alexander Shea, indicted for the murder of Murray, the Attorney General stated that since the trial of Murphy the government had discovered evidence which, taken with the testimony of Murphy on the stand, had convinced them that Shea was innocent of the crime charged against him. The Court, therefore, on motion of the Attorney General, entered a nol pros. Shea was recognized for his appearance as a witness at the January term. Saturday morning next was assigned for arguing the motion to set aside the verdict in the case of State vs. Francis Murphy.

—An up river correspondent informs the Bath Times that a farmer in Calais has had a favorite horse horribly mangled by some brute who used a knife freely in cutting his throat and sides of the animal which was in the pasture. The bloody steps of the brute were tracked some distance.

—A correspondent of the Lewiston Journal writes that Mr. T. R. Chase, formerly of Mt. Desert, erected one hundred and sixty houses in Philadelphia during the last year. He obtains much of his lumber in Maine, and has the finishing work done mostly in Augusta.

—The Overland Monthly for October is received. It is published in San Francisco and reflects credit upon the literary enterprise of its publishers. It is a first-class monthly, gotten up in the same style as the Atlantic. The contents of this number are as follows: Knapsack and Blanket, Are Our Public Schools a Failure? No. 2, Why She never Married Charley, Our Antipodean Cousin, Un Passeo en Grande Exito, Autographomania, The Sun Lion at Home, Because I Count my Life a Loss, Geological Notes (from Oregon, Tennessee), Partner, The Cruise of the "Monadnock," No. 8, Ballad to the King, the North West Rte. The late letter of Hon. Peleg W. Chandler

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

It is a cause of congratulation that among all the events of the recent Centennial Celebration, nothing occurred to wound in the slightest degree the feelings of the survivors of Bangor citizens with the single exception of the letter from the Hon. Peleg W. Chandler of Boston.

It is a matter of regret and regret that a man, in his high public position of his supposed sense of honor and delicacy, should have descended to write such a letter holding up to ridicule a man like the late Wiggin Hill, and still, more surprising that the Committee of Invitation and Publication living up and having known Mr. Hill so well, should not have suppressed that part of the letter instead of sending it to the Press to be diffused broadcast over the country among the published transaction of that occasion.

Among the many with whom he associated for many years, Mr. Hill's character needs no vindication. It is well known he was not morose or bitter, but liberal, tolerant, genial, liked to see others happy, enjoyed the sport of children, but when, in mirthful, crazy mood he heels which, working the King's highway, or tripped up a grown up daughter and compelled her to take a compulsory ride, he scolded and would fume for the moment suppress such amusement as any other father, even P. W. Chandler would have done, whether of unsanctified or modern notions.

I am glad that others in alluding to the former citizens of Bangor, have the good taste not to group them in two classes, as meaningless for honor and the other, for dishonor, and especially that they did not mention that former well known citizen, Peleg Chandler, as a subject for ridicule, or allude to that opprobious nickname which sometimes was so irreverently given him.

I owe no apology to the community for calling their attention a matter of so [illegible] but to both the [illegible] compel this brief allusion to the [illegible] revolting the sentiments of [illegible]

J. C. WILDES.

[illegible]

A WELL-KNOWN BROKER BLOWS OUT HIS BRAINS.—Benjamin Mahler, aged 35 years, a member of Wall Street brokerage, residing in Brooklyn, N. Y., has been published as insane and to be kept being [illegible] city for some years past. [illegible] however, have been of [illegible] and have proved perfectly harmless. Yesterday morning [illegible] having spent the night in [illegible] a certain excitement. He finally noticed in him unusual excitement upon his [illegible] time, he left his wife unmanned [illegible] and [illegible] Laing to retire to bed. [illegible] that he was broken and [illegible] every symptom of his old [illegible] coming on, but the servants [illegible] to proceed to the [illegible] and [illegible] Superintendent [illegible] not [illegible] heard following [illegible] quick succession, [illegible] followed by a heavy fall upon the floor. He hastily at once rushed [illegible] to the room where the unfortunate man was found, and [illegible] upon him self. Two of the bullets had lodged in his head, and had penetrated his brain, the other had passed through the folding door, and lodged in the wall of the rear room. He was packed up and laid upon a couch, where he lingered until nine o'clock, at which hour he expired.

OCEAN AFFAIRS. A letter from a special correspondent accompanying Gen Jordan's Cuban expedition is published. The writer presents a graphic picture of the early adventures and wide flights of Jordan's command, and while frankly admitting the defects of the organization, which at first threatened seriously to hamper, if not defeat the success of the movement, is able to report a gratifying improvement in the discipline and temper of the forces sufficient to inspire abundant confidence in their future action. The narrative affords the first complete account of the progress of Gen. Jordan from the time of his landing on the shore of the Bay of Nipe to the assault upon Holguin. Previous to that important action the health of his troops was excellent and their spirits were sustained by the universal expressions of sympathy from the native population. American reinforcements were eagerly looked for, though he considered absolutely indispensable for the accomplishment of the immediate work in hand. Annexation to the United States was the unanimous cry of the inhabitants of the eastern provinces. Senor Lamar denies the report of re-establishment of slavery by the Republican government.

To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot:

GEORGE W. PICKERING, of said Bangor, respectfully represents that he, jointly seized in fee in common and undivided, with Mr Joseph Barker, of said Bangor, and other persons to your petitioner unknown, of an undivided half part of a certain tract of land situate in Brewer, said county, containing four acres and nineteen hundredths of an acre, more or less, being the two most westerly four of a certain down on plan of lots in said Brewer, near the Penobscot river, made by Z. Bradley April 1st, 18—, for John Barker and Thomas Drew, and bounded and described in said plan as follows, viz: [illegible] Book 50, page 420, subject to the right of way reserved in said deed, together with the right of way appurtenant to said premises granted to said parties by said Drew, and your petitioner is informed that the said Barker has conveyed his said portion in severalty to him and his heirs and assignees forever. Wherefore, he prays that partition of said premises may be had, and that such act as aforesaid to be held in force.

GEORGE W. PICKERING.

ALBERT W. PAINE, Atty.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Sept. 15, 1869.

It is ordered that the petitioner give notice of the pendency of this petition, by giving to the within named Joseph Barker a true and attested copy of this petition and order, twenty days before the next term of the Supreme Judicial Court, for said county, and also by publishing a copy of the same and this order in the daily Whig and Courier, three weeks successively, twenty days before the twelfth day of October next, that all persons interested may then and there appear and file their objections, if they see cause.

JONAS CUTTING, Jus. S. J. Court.

A true copy. Attest: [illegible] Clerk.

KATAHDEN IRON WORKS HOTEL.

The undersigned having leased the Hotel at Katahden Iron Works, Piscataquis county, Maine, for a term of years, will endeavor to make it a pleasant and comfortable home for travellers.

Its location in the midst of the beautiful and picturesque mountain and lakes of the Piscataquis river, it is an advantage over any other place of resort.

To the sportsman and angler it offers inducements unsurpassed in the whole country, and to the invalid, the Iron Mineral Springs give restored health and strength.

Connected with the House are large stables and store houses for the accommodation of the lumbermen's teams and supplies.
